Return Reference	Explanation
III 1a	The University has various collections of fine arts in museums, libraries and on loan. The University does not assign or record a value to art works and other collections received as gifts or purchased with contributions restricted for that purpose. Valuations for some collections are updated periodically, and as such, the total value of all fine arts may vary with appraisals and/or auction prices. Accordingly, the value of fine art and other collections has been excluded from the statements of financial position. Proceeds, if any, from deaccessions or insurance recoveries are reflected as increases in the appropriate net asset classes. The art and other collections are subject to a requirement that proceeds from their sales be used to acquire other items for collections. Fine arts are included in insurance coverage for University property and a separate policy is also secured for fine art of high value and where appraised values are listed. As of both June 30, 2013 and 2012, the specific policy covering highly valued works provides for insured coverage of 79,000,000 aggregate limit for any one loss or any one occurrence and includes some appraised items from library collections. As of June 30, 2014, the specific policy covering highly valued works provides for insured coverage of 79,000,000 aggregate limit for any one loss or any one occurrence and includes some appraised items from the library collections.
III 4	The Haggerty Museum serves as a laboratory for learning focused on visual arts by collecting, exhibiting and interpreting works of art in the context of Marquette University and the City of Milwaukee. The Museums exhibitions and educational programs are designed to contribute to transformational life-long learning and enjoyment of the arts.
V 4	Endowment earnings are used for student scholarships, academic program support and general operations.
X 1	The University is exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and Section 71.261a of the Wisconsin statutes and is generally not subject to federal and state income taxes. However, the University is subject to income taxes on any income that is derived from a trade or business regularly carried on, and not in furtherance of the purpose for which it was granted exemption. No income tax provision has been recorded as the net income, if any from any unrelated trade or business, in the opinion of management, is not material to the financial statements taken as a whole.
X 1	The University has adopted FASB ASC Subtopic 740, Income Taxes, related to accounting for uncertainty in income taxes, which prescribes a recognition threshold and measurement of a tax position taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. The interpretation requires that the entity account for and disclose in the financial statements the impact of a tax position if that position will more likely than not be sustained upon examination based on the technical merits of the position. The University has evaluated the financial statement impact of tax positions taken or expected to be taken and determined it has no uncertain tax position that would require tax assets or liabilities to be recorded in accordance with accounting guidance at June 30, 2014 or 2013.
XI 4b	115,772,000 tuition discount 44,162,000 endowment income in excess of current operations
XII 4b	115,772,000 tuition discount

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I Line 2	Students receive aid that is applied toward the tuition expenses for courses taken in the study abroad programs. At the completion of the course, the participating institutions send to Marquette a transcript for each student. The Registrars Office at Marquette certifies the transcripts, then sends them to the Office of International Education or the College of Business Administration dependent on program for further review and evaluation. After this review they are returned to the Registrars Office and course credit, if applicable, is applied to the student records.
